Dear Parents and carers,

My final letter to you of this half term and what a strange half term it has been. We've been in touch with you through our class teachers and it's been good to hear how you are and how much the children are looking forward to a return to school one day soon.

At the time of emailing, we are not yet certain of what June will hold and await news from Government. The classes invited back in: R, 1 and 6, will hear from us about our plans for a return later today. We ask that you reserve any queries you have, for when we have confirmation of opening, due to be announced by Government during the half term.

Teachers have planned topics for the children to complete over the holiday ONLY if you'd like them to; you may need a total rest and so might your children. The projects are available as usual on the website.

Father Piotr has provided a wonderful Collective Worship to share with the children, see the link here: https://youtu.be/exWjIFi7_6g

We will continue to keep in touch with you as and when we have information to share, but in the meantime we wish you all lovely half term, stay safe.

Yours sincerely,

Angela Abrahams
Headteacher
